Summary: ON September 9, 2018 at approx 9:50 ish I was involved in a minor car accident - at which time officers showed up to the site. I got out of the car to speak to my friend who showed up at the scene. The officer then told me that I could not speak to him and told me to return to the car, at which time the officer got in my path and that is when I made my hand gestures to move him from touching me and that is when the officer flipped me up in the air vertically and slammed me on the cement pavement. I hit the pavement face first and fell unconscious. I don't remember much of anything after that, other than waking up in the car with blood on my face and clothes stitched on my head and injury to my hand due to gravel having to be taken out from my hand also hitting the pavement. I am suffering from scalp lacerations, fractured facial bone, lacerations to my face.

I hereby swear and affirm that the above and all attached statements and/or documentation are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
